

(2) Subject to the provisions relating to recruitment and conditions of service applicable under the rules framed under the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, the officers of the Karnataka Municipal Administrative Service referred to in sub-section (1) shall, for the period of their service under the corporation, be governed by the provisions of this Act, the rules, the regulations or the bye-laws framed thereunder.

(3) Every corporation shall contribute such percentage of its revenues to the Municipal Administration Establishment Fund constituted under sub-section (1) of section 367 of the Karnataka Municipalities Act, 1964 in such manner and at such times as the Government may by order determine, to meet the expenditure in respect of salaries allowances, pension, provident fund, gratuities and other necessary expenses payable to the officers of the Karnataka Municipal Administrative Service referred to in sub-section (1), for the period of their service under the corporation.

(4) If the corporation fails to pay the amount required to be paid under sub-section (3), the Government may direct the officer in custody of the corporation fund to pay such amount or so much thereof as is possible from the balance of the corporation fund in his hands.

91. Appointment to other posts on the corporation establishment.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sections 92 and 93 appointment to posts on the corporation establishment other than the posts borne on the cadres of the Karnataka Municipal Administrative Service, and the posts referred to in sections 18, 20 and 89, shall be made by the commissioner in accordance with this Act, the rules and the regulations framed thereunder.

(2) If a vacancy occurs in any office the corporation shall, within two months of the occurrence of such vacancy appoint some person to hold such office, unless it is an appointment to be filled by Government.

(3) If any officer appointed under sub-section (1) is a Government servant, he shall be entitled to leave and other privileges in accordance with the rules and regulations applicable to the Government service to which he belongs and in force for the time being and the corporation shall make such contribution towards his salary, leave allowances, pension and provident fund as may be payable under such rules and regulations by him or on his behalf.

92. Special appointments.—The corporation may appoint.—

(a) special health officers for the purpose of making investigations and proposing preventive or remedial measures with special reference to the occurrence of any unusual mortality or the prevalence or apprehended out-break of any dangerous disease within the city ;

(b) engineers, architects or experts in town improvement or town planning for the purpose of preparing, executing or supervising any scheme or work undertaken by the corporation ;

(c) special revenue officers for the purpose of introducing a new tax or discharging any duty connected with the revenue administration of the corporation :

Provided that—

(i) no such special office shall be created without the sanction of the Government ;

(ii) the period of duration of any such officer, the salary, the allowances and the conditions of service attaching thereto shall be fixed by the corporation, subject to the sanction of the Government, and shall not be varied without the like sanction.

93. Power of Government to appoint special health officers.—In the event of the occurrence of any unusual mortality or the prevalence or apprehended outbreak of any dangerous disease within the city, the Government, if it considers that immediate action is necessary, may, of its own motion appoint a special health officer wholly or partly at the expense of the corporation fund :

Provided that—

- (a) the duration of the special office shall not exceed six months ; and
- (b) the corporation shall not be bound to pay more than five hundred rupees per mensem on account thereof.

94. Contribution in respect of Government servants.—

(1) If an officer or servant serving or having served under the corporation is or has been transferred from or to the service of the Government or is employed partly under the Government and partly by the corporation, the corporation shall make such contribution towards his leave allowances, pension and provident fund as may be required to be made by him or on his behalf under the rules and regulations of the branch of Government service to which he belongs.

(2) Every Government servant employed by the corporation shall be entitled to salary, leave and other privileges in accordance with the rules and regulations of the branch of Government service to which he belongs.

95. Establishment schedule.—(1) The commissioner shall, lay before the standing committee for taxation and finance a schedule setting forth the designations and grades of the officers and servants who should in his opinion constitute the corporation establishment, and embodying his proposals with regard to the salaries, fees and allowances payable to them.

(2) The standing committee may either approve or amend such schedule as it thinks fit and shall lay it before the corporation with its remarks, if any.